

RESUMED ON WEDNESDAY THE 3TH OF JULY 2024

SUIT NO. PMC/SSC/144/2024

BETWEEN

AKAYA AJULACHI LILIAN

AND

NBIRI VIVIAN BARINE

The Claimant is present

The Defendant is absent

Chinonso Nwosu Appears for the Claimant

The matter is for Defence. The Claimant counsel informs the Court that the Defendant is aware of today date having been served with hearing notice of the Court. The Claimant counsel applied that the Defendant be foreclosed from Defending the suit and that the Court enters judgment in favour of the claim of the claimant before the Court.

COURT: The record of the Court shows that the Defendant has been absent on all the days that the matter come up and was never represented by counsel in the matter despite being served with the originating process in this suit and a hearing notice of this Court. The application of the Claimants counsel has merit and is granted as prayed

The Defendant is hereby foreclosed from defending this suit and judgment is entered in favour of the Claimant as follows

JUDGMENT

- i. The Claimant is entitled to the sum of N600,000 Only being unpaid loan sum which the Defendant took from the Claimant
- ii. Cost of N300,000 is awarded in favour of the Claimant and against the Defendant.

I make no further orders.

Signed
SAMUEL S. IBANUCHUKA ESQ.
(Senior Magistrate GD1)

