On the 17th of August, 2023, the CW1, one Lucky Wodike, A legal practitioner and Attorney to the Claimant gives evidence as CW1 and states that he has a Power of Attorney to prosecute the matter on behalf of the CW1, and the said Power of Attorney is admitted in evidence as Exhibit A

That the Claimant has suffered too much financial and emotional hardship and that without the intervention of this Honorable Court, the Defendant will not pay back to the Claimant the invested sum and return on investment due to the Claimant.

The Claimant prays the Court to grant the prayer as on the face of the claim before the Court.

A total of four (4) exhibits were tendered in evidence in the course of the trial.

That said, I will proceed to consider the case of the parties in the light of the relevant laws. I have noted the essence of the claim have also taken cognizance of the evidence before the court. I have read all the exhibits and I have couched a lone issue for determination and that is whether the Claimant has discharged the burden of proving his claim before the Court.

Suffice is to say that before the court adjourned the matter for hearing and heard the matter, the court always satisfied itself that:

1. The processes have been duly served on the defendant the burden of proving that he is entitled to his claim before the Court.
2. That the time before the date of service and the date of hearing was sufficient for the defendant to have appeared had he intended to do so.

It is also important to note at this point that none of the facts stated by the CW1 were controverted in evidence or denied by the defendant and so will be deemed by this court as admitted. The law is that facts admitted need not be proved by evidence. Please refer to the case of Ayoke V. Bello (1992)10 NWLR (Pt 218) pg 380 Ratio 2; O.A.A Cooperative Society Vs. NACP Ltd (1999) 2NWLR (Pt 590) Pg 234, Ratio 4 to the effect that what is not denied is deemed admitted and what is admitted need not be proved.

On the undisputed and clear evidence before the court, the court will hold that the Claimant has discharged the burden of proving that he is entitled to his claim before the Court.

IT IS THUS ADJUDGED that the Defendant to pay the Claimant, the sum of N4,500,000.00 (Four Million Five Hundred Thousand Naira) return on invested sum

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the sum of N500,000.00 (Five Hundred Thousand Naira) be paid to the Claimant by the defendant as general damages for holding back the Claimant's money

AND IT IS ORDERED that the defendants pay to the Claimant, the sum N4,500,000.00 (Four Million Five Hundred Thousand Naira) and N500,000.00 (Five Hundred Thousand Naira) as the return on invested sum and general damages totaling the sum of N5,000,000.00 (Five Million Naira) only to be paid on or before the 14th day of September, 2023.

TAKE NOTICE –That if payment is not made as above ordered, a warrant or warrants may issue requiring an officer of the court to levy the sum above mentioned, to the Claimant together with further costs.
